ALBERT M. OSGOOD, TREASURER.

HERBERT J. L. BODWELL, SECRETARY.

The attention of every policy holder is called to the following:—

By vote at the annual meeting of the Company held January 7, 1901, policy holders wishing to remain away longer than thirty days may keep the insurance on their property good, by applying to the secretary for a permit to leave their premises unoccupied for such time as they may specify, paying for the same five cents per month for every one hundred dollars for which they are insured.

School Report.

For the year ending Feb. 15, 1912.

Our schools, with one exception, have been in session thirty-two weeks. North Sanbornton school, owing to sickness, had but thirty-one weeks. This is the largest amount of schooling the District has ever had. It aggregates more than twice as much as we had when we came under the town system. The spring and summer term was thirteen weeks in duration, the fall and winter term nineteen, with a week's vacation near the middle of the term. While the attendance and work of some of them was hindered by sickness, the majority (of them) pursued their work without interruption.

The following teachers were employed: Claris Hanson, at Calef Hill, both terms; M. Pearl Colby, at the Square, both terms; Lief Z. Clement, at Hunkins, first term, Bertha Smith, the second; Ruby E. Lane, at the Meadow, both terms; Annie J. Shaw, at the Bay, first term, Mary C. Hunkins, the second term; Bertha M. Jones, at Gaza, first term, Emma G. Brown and Iva Eastman, the second; Sarah P. Bailey, at Chapel, both terms; George W. Gilman, at New State, both terms; Lilian E. Ring, at Osgood, both terms; Mary N. Redding, at North Sanbornton, both terms.

Most of these teachers had had large experience in school work. In the main they were faithful and devoted thereto. Miss Clement commenced the first term at Hunkins, but after two weeks was obliged to leave the charge on account of sickness. The school was divided for the remainder of the term, and the pupils (were) schooled at the Square and Meadow. Mrs. Brown had charge at Gaza thirteen weeks of the second term, when she retired because of illness. Miss Eastman taught the remainder of the term.

During the year a commendable interest has been manifested on the part of parents and others in visiting our schools. The names of over four hundred visitors are enrolled upon the registers.

The district has been quite largely represented in high schools and academies. The names of the pupils and institutions which they have attended are herewith given.

The statistical table and financial account contain facts of interest, to which we invite special attention.

EXTRACTS FROM FOREST FIRE LAWS.

(Chapter 123, N. H. Laws of 1909, as amended in 1911.)

SECTION 7. It shall be the duty of the forest fire warden and deputy fire warden to extinguish all brush and forest fires occurring in his town, and either of them may call such assistance as he deems necessary to assist him in so doing, and may require the use of wagons, tools, horses, etc., for that purpose, but such authority shall not interfere with the authority of chiefs of city fire departments. If any person fails to respond to the warden's call for his assistance or the use of his property, he shall be fined not exceeding ten dollars for each offense. . . .

SECT. 12. No person shall kindle a fire upon public land without permission first had from the forestry commission, the state forester, district chief, forest fire warden, deputy forest fire warden, or from the official caretaker of such public land. No person shall kindle a fire upon the land of another without permission first had from the owner thereof or from the owner's agent.

SECT. 13. Between the first day of April and the first day of November, inclusive, of each year, no person shall kindle a fire or burn brush in or near woodland without the written permission of the forest fire warden or presence of the forest fire warden or person appointed to represent him.

SECT. 14. Fires kindled by throwing down a lighted match, cigar, or other burning substance, shall be deemed within the provisions of sections 12 and 13, and every person violating any provision of said sections shall be fined not more than two hundred dollars, or imprisoned not more than sixty days, or both.

SECT. 15. The state forester, or the forest fire warden, or the deputy forest fire warden, may arrest, without a warrant, any person or persons taken by him in the act of violating any of the laws for the protection of forest lands, and bring such person or persons forthwith before a justice of the peace or other justice having jurisdiction, who shall proceed without delay to dispose of the matter as justice may require.

SECT. 16. Every person who shall set fire on any land, that shall run upon the land of any other person, shall pay to the owner all damages done by such fire.

SECT. 18. It shall be the duty of any person who discovers a forest or brush fire not under control or supervision of some person to extinguish it or report it immediately to the forest fire warden or official in charge of forest protection, and failure so to do shall be punished by a forfeiture not exceeding ten dollars to be recovered upon the complaint of the warden.
